it, she arrived at a time of intense conflict and disorganization. Pam, with no radio experience but lots of dedication and common sense, walked in to the vacuum and made sure that critical work got done. Pam was everywhere in the station, on-the-air, and out in the community taping speeches and lectures. Thanks, Pam. We'll miss you.

As you know, we have been searching for a new general manager for KPFK for several months. At this writing, we have extended the search a few weeks to allow the new board members to have input into the process. We hope to have a new manager by the time you read this Folio.

This seems to be the month for changes. Every major change brings anxiety and the need for transition, but we hope that you will join us in moving the station toward becoming the major institution for social change that it has been in the past.

First, program coordinator, Pamela Burton has left KPFK to return to graduate school. She is the first Pacifica person to receive an associate fellowship at Ohio University where she will participate in a special program for public telecommunications managers. We are thrilled that Pam was selected. Pam came to the station as a part time subscriptions assistant as her way of contributing to her favorite radio station while managing a family business, the Sunshine Garden Cafe, in Glendale. And, finally, after six years in the "hot seat," I have Radio, effective December 31, 1986. We have succeeded

1) Retire the nearly $1 million old debt and have one for Pacifica's long range future.

2) Having a leadership that reflects the diversity airwaves have exhibited in the past. When I came Today, the national board is majority women and minority women and majority women of color, and programmers and volunteers.

These past six years have been filled with many moments of intense frustration and conflict. I feel compelled to continue to "put Pacifica on the map" as it continues to me, I will be working on the grassroots campaign of the Los Angeles' 7th District, then I will return to my home consultation...with a focus in international communication and Zimbabwe by this time next year. ## LAEMMLE THEATRES

"A DELECTABLE COMEDY.

WITTY AND WINNING...abounding in lively incidents and wicked little jabs at men's stock attitudes about women." -Walter Goodman, VILLAGE VOICE

"A ZANY COMEDY and affectionate poke at the opposite sex by West German Doris Dörrie... her films have the cheeky sophistication of Ernst Lubitsch, updated to accomodate the sexual anxiety of the 80's." -Molly Haskell, VOGUE

"A TRUMPH FOR BOTH SEXES. Everyone comes out a winner. Funny...freshly written and directed." -Jami Bernard, NEW YORK POST
